

Staying Apart to Stay Safe

The Impact of Visitor Restrictions on Long-Term Care and Assisted Living Survey

This version of the survey is intended for residents living in a care home.

Thank you for taking the time to tell your story, in your voice of the impact from living with the visit restrictions in long-term and assisted living that have been required in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The survey will ask you some questions about your visits before the pandemic. We want to know what type of activities you did during the visits and what the health and well being of residents was like. We want to know a little bit about your experience when the visit restrictions were mandated. How did you find out, what did you do during the first few months?

We also want to know what your visits look like now. Visit restrictions were eased on June 30th to allow for one designated visitor for each resident and we want to know how that is working for you. We also want to hear your ideas and suggestions as both residents and family members on where we might improve and if we have achieved the right balance between risk and the need to find a way to live through this pandemic for the next year or so.

Your experiences and insights are very important. This is your lived experience and hearing directly from residents and family members will help us better understand the overall impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on residents living in long-term care and assisted living and the people who love them.

This survey is now CLOSED to responses. This document remains online as an archive for informational purposes only.

Please proceed question-by-question. Some questions may lead to different lines of additional questions depending on the answer. Where this happens, instructions for which question to proceed to are included. Please remember that you may choose to NOT answer a particular question if you are uncomfortable or do not wish to provide an answer.
